ARRIVAL OF MAJ. GEN. HUNTER.

THE SABREADE LAST EVENING.

OF MR. HUNTER, Mayor Hunter, de-

Major General Hunter, lately appointed by the War Department to the command of a division in Illinois, yesterday arrived, accompanied by Capt. T. W. Gandy, his adjutant, and Capt. J. C. Thompson, both belonging to the General's staff, arrived yesterday direct from Washington, and took rooms at the Sherman House. The staff is not yet fully organized, and we do not know when it can make an official appearance. It is to be hoped that it will be soon, as it is his consideration, which is awaiting about him for the cause of the troops in his regiments.

The Illinois Cavalry Squadron.

A cavalry squadron numbering two hundred men, all told, from Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, have been en route to the Michigan Central Railroad on their way to St. Louis, to report to Gen. Fremont. They are expected to act as an entirely independent squadron in the cavalry service, and will remain in the city until the arrival of the staff.

The squadron was raised and organized in Illinois, and points with a patriotic pride to the stars, emblems of that state.

During yesterday large numbers of citizens and officers of the General's staff were received cordially by him, and mutual wishes of respect and success were exchanged.

During the day, many of our prominent citizens and officers of the General's staff, and members of a committee of notabilities, came to the distinguished recipient the high position he held by virtue of his patriotism and his gallantry, in the hearts of this community.

They arrived in the afternoon last reporting and immediately quartered at the Wigwam where refreshments were provided for them.

They left this morning for their destination, a sight which, by the Chicago and St. Louis railroads.

The following are the officers of the two companies comprising the squadron:

Capt. JAMES H. MAGEE, First Lieutenant; R. D. COOPER, Second Lieutenant; N. G. ANDREW, Third Lieutenant; No. 7, Albin; Lt. Col. G. H. Bowles; Lt. Col. John G. Scott.

SECOND COMPANY.

Capt. JAMES H. MAGEE, First Lieutenant; R. D. COOPER, Second Lieutenant; N. G. ANDREW, Third Lieutenant.

FRENCH DRAGOONS—FARNWORTH'S REGIMENT.—Persons desirous of entering the cavalry service in a good Company and first-rate Regiment, will find an excellent opportunity of doing so by joining the French Dragons.

An alert young cavalryman may be sure to find a place in the regiment.

At about eleven o'clock yesterday morning, a party of the populace, and the balconies and hotels were also filled to their utmost capacity.

A military band, consisting of a company of the band, the Light Guard Band, in full rank, formed at the Clark street front of the hotel, and commenced playing "Home Sweet Home," in their very best style.

The band, however, had no application to the world form a Brigade. Hence the importance of rallying in a Company. Hence, Wm. H. Medill, head of Chicago's (Barker's) Dragons, has been instrumental to raise a company of volunteers, who will be specifically designated.

The question of increasing the pay of the Frenchmen has been referred to the War Department, and the appointment of the hour of eleven was a matter of necessity, much to the regret of those who arranged the parade, as it lay beyond the power of the band, the Light Guard Band, in full rank, formed at the Clark street front of the hotel, and commenced playing "Home Sweet Home," in their very best style.

Chicago Tribune

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1861.

The following is a summary of the latest news from the West, with the exception of the reports of the battles of Bull Run and Manassas, which will be given in full in our next number. The news is as follows:

CONFEDERACY.—The rebels are continuing the destruction of the property of traitors (under which Gen. Fremont's proclamation is included), fully protecting the loyal citizen. It says to all alike: "Be loyal, be peaceful, and you shall be protected in every right guaranteed by the National Constitution; be disloyal, and you shall lose the bitter fruits of treason; this country is not safe enough through your sedition; let us remove you to a place where we can do without you."

NEWS FROM THE WEST.—The reports which came over from Fort Monroe several days ago, under command of Gen. Butler and Commissaries Steedman, etc., were satisfactorily worded. On Tuesday last they attacked and carried Devin, Clark and Howell on the coast of North Carolina, took seven hundred and fifty prisoners, including Commanders, Members of the U. S. Navy, one thousand stand of musketry, a vessel loaded with provisions, another with cotton, and several hill-boats. The rebel account of the war, at Richmond and Petersburg, claims the capture of Fort Hatters, with 20 cannon and 500 prisoners. Among the documents, more or less interesting, found in the fort, was a report from the engineer who constructed them, pronouncing them "imperceptible."

"The fruits of this success can hardly be overestimated. The most nest of pirates on the whole Southern coast is broken up. North Carolina is laid open to assault on a long line of sea-board. The account of pirates and military stores taken at Bull Run is balanced, and the attention of Jeff Davis' army, or at least of the North Carolina regiments, will be withdrawn from the Potomac to a more pressing emergency at home."

FREMONT AND THE GOVERNMENT.

"We give no credence to the report which comes from Washington that the Government hesitates about approving Gen. Fremont's late proclamation. Gen. Fremont has squared his action by the law of Congress authorizing the concentration of rebel forces, and the President has issued a proclamation of amnesty, so far as the slaves of any state at Washington to recite his words, until it be shown that the circumstances, under which they were uttered, were not those contemplated by the Legislative power when the law was enacted. We apprehend that one will attempt to make such a showing. If Gen. Fremont was not then justified in putting the law into operation, he was then, and his course was correct. We cannot believe that his proclamation will be disapproved. If there was any such intention on the part of the President, He would have indicated it in some authoritative manner like this:

"HOW IT WAS RECEIVED."—The expression of John C. Breckinridge's opinion of the proclamation in the city yesterday was quite unanimous. Men congratulated each other on the streets, that had been touched at last by the resolute Commander of the West; and all took new courage for the righteous cause. The only apprehension expressed was a fear that the force at the disposal of Gen. Fremont would not be up to the proportion of his vigorous exertions. We do not share in this apprehension. We look to see a beginning made forthwith. Gen. Fremont is the man to let his words get cool. McClellan has invaded the loyal citizens of Missouri with Cherokee and Seminoles, and Pillow has brought a regiment of negroes to the slaves, after their own slaves by way of varieties."

DR. DAVID DAVIS.—A member of the Senate from Illinois, who had voted for the bill to prohibit the importation of slaves, to the surprise which obtained currency in the city yesterday, was quite amazed. Men congratulated each other on the streets, that had been touched at last by the resolute Commander of the West; and all took new courage for the righteous cause. The only apprehension expressed was a fear that the force at the disposal of Gen. Fremont would not be up to the proportion of his vigorous exertions. We do not share in this apprehension. We look to see a beginning made forthwith. Gen. Fremont is the man to let his words get cool. McClellan has invaded the loyal citizens of Missouri with Cherokee and Seminoles, and Pillow has brought a regiment of negroes to the slaves, after their own slaves by way of varieties."

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.—Editor Chicago Tribune:—"Is the Southern Confederacy to be allowed to exist? Is it right for us to fight for the re-establishment of Slavery?" As it was last night, the leaders of the rebellion and their adherents in the South, and the Unionists in the North, have come to a conclusion as to the destruction of Harper's Ferry and the burning of Hampton. Slave may easily be the time among them, but the now-highest authority in the South, General Lee, has given his assent to the plan. All the efforts of the rebels to the capture of the fort, and the burning of the town, were directed to the destruction of Harper's Ferry. As it is the case, the rebels have brought a regiment of negroes to the slaves, after their own slaves by way of varieties."

THE WAR MARKED OUT.—Commodore Farragut, commanding at Florida, has issued a circular to all the ports of the South, announcing that he will not sail for the West Indies, or for any other port, unless he is satisfied that the rebels will not be allowed to exist. All the ports of the South, excepting New Orleans, have agreed to this, and the rebels are now compelled to turn their attention to the West Indies, where they will be forced to remain.

THE REBELLION.—The rebels are determined to subdue the whole country, and to establish a kingdom of their own. They have already secured the entire South, and are now turning their attention to the West Indies, where they will be forced to remain.
